The 2018 volleyball season started early for Creighton, as 11 days in Europe during the month of June helped the Bluejays prep for one of the most promising seasons in program history.

The trip allowed Creighton's eight returners time to mesh and bond with seven talented newcomers both on and off the court, giving Kirsten Bernthal Booth's club additional court time prior to the annual start of the fall in early August.

Highlighting the returners are All-Americans Taryn Kloth, Jaali Winters and Brittany Witt. Their leadership and experience will help offset the loss of the winningest senior class in program history, as Kenzie Crawford, Lydia Dimke, Brittany Lawrence and Marysa Wilkinson helped lead CU to four consecutive BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles.

Winters is a three-time First Team All-BIG EAST selection and been named an All-American after each of her first three seasons in Blue and White. Already a member of CU's 1,000 kill and 1,000 dig club, the outside hitter has a chance to rewrite the Bluejay record book with another strong campaign.

Kloth also figures to play on the left side in her senior season. The MVP of last year's BIG EAST Championship, Kloth spent part of the summer training with the US Collegiate National Team in China and is primed to have her best season yet.

Three true freshmen who helped compose the nation's 10th-ranked recruiting class will also battle for time on the pins -- Keeley Davis, Jaela Zimmerman and Kari Zumach.

Davis (Colorado) and Zimmerman (Nebraska) were both top-50 recruits who were named Gatorade Player of the Year in their home state. Zumach will look to experience college success similar to what her older sister Kylee has at Kansas State. Kylee was named 2014 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and an Honorable Mention All-American.

Megan Ballenger and Naomi Hickman give the Bluejays two additional starting attackers that return; and both women can play in the middle or on the right side.

Senior Kelsey O'Connell and freshman Annika Welty will also compete for playing time in the middle.

With the departure of two-time All-American Dimke at setter, CU added a pair of transfers to fill that void.

Rutgers transfer Megan Sharkey arrived in January and spent the spring with the program, and Madelyn Cole arrived in June after two years at Marshall. Both women have two years of starting experience at the college level and have what it takes to direct the Bluejay offense.

Brittany Witt

Creighton returns the bulk of its defense from a year ago, a group that is led by returning All-American Witt. Witt was named the 2017 BIG EAST Libero of the Year and has excelled in that spot for CU since arriving on campus in 2016.

Senior Samantha Bohnet and sophomore Alexa Roumeliotis both saw extensive playing time last fall in the back row.

Bohnet has also been used as a serving specialist and back-up setter in the past, and is one of the team's vocal leaders.

Roumeliotis came on strong midway through last season and started 14 of CU's final 15 contests down the stretch.

New to the mix at defensive specialist after arriving in the spring is Ball State transfer Grace Nelson. The Elkhorn native will vie for court action after making 13 starts with the Cardinals in her rookie year.

Since inheriting a 3-23 team in 2002, Booth has steadily built a program that has appeared in the AVCA's Top 25 poll each of the last six years, and reached seven of the last eight NCAA Tournaments. That includes a 2016 run to the Elite Eight, which followed a 2015 Sweet Sixteen appearance.

Booth owns an impressive past, both on and off the court.

Creighton has posted a record of 317-160 and averaged 1,242 fans per home match in Booth's tenure, compared to a 93-152 mark and 215 fans per match the nine years before her arrival. All of Booth's teams have qualified for the league tournament, with her last six teams reaching the finals.

Booth's .665 winning percentage and 317 wins are easily the best in Creighton volleyball history. Booth owns 429 career victories, an average of 23.8 wins per season, when you add in her 112 wins in three years at Kirkwood (Iowa) Community College.

In her first 15 seasons, Booth has coached 31 First Team and 15 Second Team All-Conference picks, while also recruiting and coaching a dozen MVC All-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have won 12 AVCA Team Academic Awards and featured CoSIDA Academic All-Americans Emily Greisch (2006), Megan Bober (2012) and Jaali Winters (2017).

Last year's club won a fourth consecutive BIG EAST title, posted top-10 road victories at No. 3 Washington and No. 7 Kansas, and won four different tournaments. CU earned its second national seed in three seasons, hosting NCAA Tournament matches for the first time, and set a school record for average home attendance (1,873). The victory over Washington marked the highest-ranked team Creighton has ever beaten, and was the Huskies' first non-conference loss in the regular-season since 2007.

Winters, Lydia Dimke, Marysa Wilkinson and Brittany Witt were named First Team All-BIG EAST, with Witt also winning BIG EAST Libero of the Year honors.

Creighton's 2016 campaign won't soon be forgotten, as the Jays ascended to ninth in the national rankings and tied a program record with 29 wins. Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year, AVCA East Region Coach of the Year and VolleyballMag.com National Coach of the Year, after CU swept BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles for a third straight fall. Creighton became the first team in league history to finish BIG EAST play 18-0.

Booth's 2016 club became the first in history to open an NCAA Tournament with three straight five-set wins, as the Bluejays took down Northern Iowa, No. 4 Kansas and No. 17 Michigan en route to the program's Elite Eight debut.

Dimke was named the BIG EAST Player of the Year as well as a Third Team All-American in 2016, setting a high-powered offense that featured Honorable Mention All-Americans Taryn Kloth and Winters. Witt was named AVCA East Region Freshman of the Year and Wilkinson and Lauren Smith joined Dimke, Kloth and Winters on the AVCA All-East Region First Team.

In 2015 Creighton swept No. 10 Kentucky early in the fall, then won both the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles for a second straight year. The club earned the No. 16 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, where it beat Coastal Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time. Smith was named an Honorable Mention All-American after leading the league in blocks and hitting percentage, while Winters set a school record for kills and finished as BIG EAST and AVCA East Region Freshman of the Year before being recognized as a Third Team All-American. Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year, as well as AVCA East Region Coach of the Year, for her efforts.

In 2014 Creighton finished 25-9 while winning both the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles. The Bluejays earned a spot in a third straight NCAA Tournament after becoming the school's first team in any sport to win a BIG EAST Tournament title. Kelli Browning earned Third Team All-America honors at year's end from the AVCA to cap a standout career.

Creighton's 2013 campaign opened with a win over No. 13 BYU en route to a Hampton Inn Invitational title, and CU led the nation in blocks per set. That club was anchored by all-league picks Leah McNary and Browning, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Booth was named 2012 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year after the best fall in program history to that point. Creighton finished 29-4 while sweeping the MVC regular-season and tournament titles in a season for the ages. CU went 12-1 at home (9-0 in MVC play) and produced a 17-match win streak that carried into the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Bober was named MVC Player of the Year, while Browning was tabbed as MVC Defensive Player of the Year. Both women were named All-American Honorable Mention by the AVCA. In addition, Creighton landed Melanie Jereb and Kate Elman on the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

The 2011 season saw the Bluejays claim three First Team All-Valley picks for just the second time in program history, including the program's first MVC Libero of the Year accolade.

Creighton's 2010 NCAA Tournament run included an inspiring first-round victory over No. 16 Iowa State, and helped the Bluejays earn votes in the year-ending top-25 poll. The campaign saw the Bluejays rally from a slow start to finish third in the Missouri Valley Conference. Creighton reached the MVC Tournament finals for the first time after beating Wichita State in the semifinals, which helped secure a much-deserved at-large bid.

Add it up, and it quickly becomes evident why Booth was named 2010 National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Volleyball Update.

The at-large berth into the 2010 NCAA Tournament came not long after back-to-back second-place finishes in the MVC resulted in near-misses to the 2007 and 2008 NCAA Tournaments.

The 2008 Bluejay squad finished in sole possession of second place for the first time in program history after going 15-3 in league play. That club saw Korie Lebeda close her career as Creighton's all-time assist leader, while Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades.

Creighton's 2007 team finished 21-10 and tied for second in the MVC with a 14-4 record. CU became the first team to ever rally from an 0-2 deficit to win at UNI on September 21, and hosted a record-setting crowd (13,081) at CHI Health Center Omaha on September 2 vs. Cal Poly. Lebeda set a Bluejay record for career assists (5,281), Bianca Rivera set a record for single-season digs (618), and Kelly Goc broke season (.368) and career marks for hitting percentage (.296). Goc would also become the program's first All-America Honorable Mention.

Booth's 2006 team won a then-record 21 matches, picking up in-season tournament titles at Montana State and Middle Tennessee, and reached the MVC Tournament semifinals.

The 2005 campaign was highlighted by the program's first win at Northern Iowa, a win over Marquette, and the title at the San Diego State Invitational. The Bluejays finished 16-14.

Booth's 2004 club won a then-record 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. Creighton was also the only club in the MVC to beat the regular-season and tourney champ, Wichita State.

In 2003, Booth took a Creighton team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut year.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, which is a key factor in the team's record crowds, ranking among the top-50 nationally each of the last 12 seasons.

D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center opened in 2009 to rave reviews and hosted six volleyball matches involving ranked teams in its inaugural year, including Creighton's four-set win over No. 25 Wichita State. Creighton is 101-24 in its nine seasons at the facility, where it owns a 73-7 mark in conference play.

On the court, Booth was an All-State setter in high school at Lincoln East and Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association MVP in college at Truman State. Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors and was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year.

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches. Her 2000 team reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. Her 2001 team placed fourth nationally and her 2002 club won 39 matches and had seven players earn academic all-conference honors. Twice, she was named District Coach of the Year.

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54. She ran the offense as the setter and was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned All-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well. She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and setting new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She was inducted into Truman State's Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 2011.

She was also a member of the Student Senate at Truman State, where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at No. 1 singles.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. The couple have three daughters: Reese (13), Hayden (11) and Berkeley (7).

Year-by-Year Under Kirsten Bernthal Booth

2017 (26-7, 16-2 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 14, Year-End AVCA Rank of 16)
After a grueling non-conference schedule that included road wins at No. 3 Washington and No. 7 Kansas, Creighton won the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles for a fourth straight campaign in 2017. Creighton earned the No. 9 national seed, hosting its first NCAA Tournament matches, and were ranked in the top-25 in all 16 AVCA polls. Creighton went 16-2 in league play, only to avenge both losses en route to a BIG EAST Championship crown. Thanks in part to three sellouts, the Bluejays set a school record for average home attendance (1,873). Brittany Witt was named BIG EAST Libero of the Year and joined as a First Team All-BIG EAST pick by Lydia Dimke, Marysa Wilkinson and Jaali Winters.

2016 (29-7, 18-0 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 12, Year-End AVCA Rank of 9)
Three straight five-set wins in the NCAA Tournament helped Creighton reach the program's first Elite Eight, while tying the school record with 29 wins. The Bluejays started the year 6-6 against a difficult non-conference slate before a school-record 23 straight wins that ranked as the nation's longest active streak at the time. That stretch included the first 18-0 season by any volleyball team in BIG EAST history, and a sweep of both matches at the BIG EAST Championship, as Creighton claimed both crowns for the third straight year. Purdue transfer Lydia Dimke was named BIG EAST Player of the Year and Third Team All-American, while Brittany Witt earned EAST Region Freshman of the Year honors. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year and VolleyballMag.com National Coach of the Year. Creighton defeated Northern Iowa, No. 4 Kansas and No. 17 Michigan in the NCAA Tournament before falling to No. 5 Texas in Austin in the Elite Eight.

2015 (27-9, 17-1 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 14, Year-End AVCA Rank of 19)
Creighton won its second consecutive BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles to earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons, then advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history. Creighton played five top-11 teams in non-conference play, including a 3-0 sweep over No. 10 Kentucky. A five-set comeback over Kansas State ignited a 12-match win streak, and CU won the BIG EAST by three games with a 17-1 mark. The Bluejays then defended their home court with victories over Marquette and Villanova to win the BIG EAST Tournament. Creighton earned the No. 16 national seed and was sent to Chapel Hill, N.C., for postseason play. CU defeated Coastal Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina to clinch a Sweet 16 appearance, where it won the first set from No. 2 USC before falling in four sets. The most victorious senior class in program history (104 wins) was led by all-time digs leader Kate Elman. Jaali Winters spearheaded the nation's No. 11 recruiting class and was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and Third Team All-American while setting a CU record for kills in a season. Lauren Smith was First Team All-BIG EAST and Honorable Mention All-American and fellow junior Jess Bird was named BIG EAST Tourney MVP. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year and AVCA East Region Coach of the Year.

2014 (25-9, 16-2 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 34)
Creighton won both the regular-season and tournament titles in the BIG EAST while advancing to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament. The Bluejays opened the year 7-6 against a ruthless non-conference schedule, but did earn a victory over former MVC rival Wichita State to win the Bluejay Invitational for the first time. The Jays avenged both regular-season losses in BIG EAST play with a 3-1 triumph over Seton Hall in the BIG EAST Championship final. Lauren Smith (MVP), Leah McNary and Marysa Wilkinson were named to the All-Tournament Team, while Kelli Browning and Jess Bird were named First Team All-BIG EAST. Browning would close her career as CU's all-time leader in attack percentage and block assists while being named a Third Team All-American by the AVCA and the Omaha Sports Woman of the Year by the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame. The year also saw Kate Elman become CU's all-time digs leader.

2013 (23-9, 12-4 BIG EAST, Final RPI of 18)
Creighton's first season in the BIG EAST saw the Bluejays attain a year-end RPI of 18 to go with runner-up finishes in league play during both the regular-season and league tournament. Ranked 24th nationally in the preseason AVCA poll, Creighton opened a challenging preseason schedule with a 3-1 win over No. 13 BYU, part of a stretch that also featured matches vs. California, Kansas, Cal State Northridge, UCLA, Hawai'i and Wichita State. Kelli Browning and Michelle Sicner were named All-American Honorable Mention by the AVCA, while Browning and Leah McNary were First Team All-BIG EAST. CU led the nation with 3.06 blocks per set. The Bluejays reached the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four seasons, defeating Arkansas before falling in four sets at Kansas.

2012 (29-4, 17-1 MVC, Final RPI of 24, Year-End AVCA Rank of 24)
One of the best seasons by any women's team in Creighton history saw the Bluejays close their 19-year run in the MVC by winning the program's first Valley regular-season and tournament titles. CU won regular-season tournaments at South Florida and Northern Colorado before clinching the outright league crown with a memorable 3-2 comeback win at rival Wichita State. The Bluejays swept the Shockers eight days later for the Valley Tourney title, then defeated Marquette in straight sets to open NCAA Tournament play before falling in four frames at Minnesota. Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, while Kelli Browning was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year after tying for the national lead with 204 blocks. Both women were named All-Americans Honorable Mention and were joined on the All-MVC First Team by freshman Melanie Jereb. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named MVC Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year. Creighton also spent four weeks in the AVCA Top 25 for the first time, reaching as high as No. 21 before finishing No. 24.

Creighton finished the 2011 season with a 17-14 mark, falling in the quarterfinals of the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays tied a program record with three First Team All-MVC picks (Megan Bober, Laurel Sanford and MVC Libero of the Year Julianne Mandolfo). Bober set an MVC single-season record with nine triple-doubles, while Mandolfo set CU single-season records for digs and digs per set. Leah McNary and Michelle Sicner were both named to The Valley's All-Freshman squad.

2010 (21-12, 13-5 MVC, Final RPI of 32)
Creighton's breakthrough season saw the Bluejays make their first NCAA Tournament, upset No. 16 Iowa State, and Kirsten Bernthal Booth claim National Coach of the Year honors from CVU.com. Creighton finished third in the MVC, the nation's sixth-ranked conference, and then broke down another barrier by reaching its first conference tournament final. The Bluejays earned an at-large bid and beat Iowa State in five sets before falling at No. 12 Minnesota in the NCAA Tourney. Sophomore Megan Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-American Honorable Mention as part of a balanced squad that ranked second nationally in digs per set (18.94).

2009 (14-17, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 86)
Creighton opened D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, setting a then-school record with 10 home wins. Creighton beat No. 25 Wichita State on Oct. 2 for its first win over a ranked opponent, and hosted the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the first time at year's end. The team overcame a 3-8 non-conference mark with a fourth-place finish in the MVC. Jessica Houts was named First Team All-MVC to lead a Creighton defense that ranked third nationally in blocks per set.

Creighton narrowly missed an NCAA bid, finishing with the second-best RPI of any team left out of the field. The Bluejays dropped key five-set matches to No. 21 LSU and UAB early in the year and a chance to pick up some key wins were lost when a tournament was cancelled due to a hurricane in Texas. Creighton cruised through the league with a 15-3 mark, including a sweep of UNI on the last weekend of the year, to finish alone in second place and set a program record with an eighth-straight win. However, the Bluejays dropped a five-set match to UNI in the MVC Tournament semifinals. Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-American and joined teammates Korie Lebeda and Amanda Cvejdlik on the All-MVC First Team.

2007 (21-10, 14-4 MVC, Final RPI of 56)
Creighton didn't receive an NCAA Tournament at-large bid after a second consecutive 21-10 campaign. The Bluejays tied for second in the MVC but despite one of the nation's top-15 toughest non-conference schedules, weren't among four MVC teams selected to the NCAA's. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda both repeated as First Team All-Valley picks, with Goc also named an All-American Honorable Mention. Allie Oelke was MVC Freshman of the Year and libero Bianca Rivera set a single-season dig mark. Creighton averaged a record 1,860 fans per home match, hosting more than 13,000 at CHI Health Center Omaha for a Sept. 2 contest vs. Cal Poly.

2006 (21-10, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 57)
Creighton's first team to win 20 or more matches ranked among the national leaders in attendance, too. A five-set road win at Wichita State and four-set match against eventual national champion Nebraska before more than 12,000 fans prove the program reached previously unprecedented heights. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda were both named First Team All-Valley as Creighton beat three teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

2005 (16-14, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 124)
A road win at Northern Iowa highlighted a 16-14 season. Leah Ratzlaff repeated her First Team All-MVC honors and finished 12th in league history in career kills. Korie Lebeda topped the MVC with a league- and school-record 13.34 assists per set and was joined by classmates Jessica Houts and Amanda Cvejdlik to form a talented trio of Bluejay freshmen.

2004 (18-11, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 95)
A then-school-record seven-match winning streak that included victories at Missouri, New Mexico and Iowa helped Creighton reach 18 wins. Leah Ratzlaff was First Team All-MVC, while Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc were named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

2003 (12-18, 9-9 MVC, Final RPI of 170)
With virtually the same personnel, Booth's first team improved its win total from 2002 by nine wins to finish 12-18. The season marked the program's move to the Omaha Civic Auditorium, and attendance records fell. Single-season school records were set for kills (Leah Ratzlaff), digs (Janeen Piller), blocks (Ashley Williams) and assists (Brittany Coleman).

Angie Oxley Behrens

A former national champ and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley Behrens returns for her 16th season as an assistant coach at Creighton. An original member of Kirsten Bernthal Booth's staff, she is the longest-tenured assistant coach in Creighton's Volleyball history.

Behrens works closely with Creighton's outside hitters, while assisting with scouting and recruiting. Behrens also helps organize Creighton's volleyball camps.

The Bluejays have spent parts of each of the last six seasons ranked in the Top 25, and have been ranked for 22 straight weekly polls. The last 15 years have seen the Creighton team compile its top 12 single-season kill totals all-time, as well as the top seven individual single-season marks that were set by Jaali Winters (2x), Leah Ratzlaff (3x), Alicia Runge and Kelly Goc.

Behrens has trained seven outside hitters to all-conference honors; Leah Ratzlaff (2004, 2005), Amanda Cvejdlik (2008), Melanie Jereb (2012), Leah McNary (2013), Jess Bird (2014, 2015), Jaali Winters (2015, 2016, 2017) and Taryn Kloth (2016, 2017). Winters was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year, AVCA East Region Freshman of the Year, AVCA Third Team All-American and Creighton's Female Athlete of the Year after a school-record 546 kills in 2015. Both Winters and Kloth have earned All-America acclaim and spent time with USA Volleyball since becoming Bluejays.

Behrens has seen Creighton go 317-160 in her 15 seasons on the bench, including NCAA Tournament wins in 2010, 2012, 2013, 2015 (2), 2016 (3) and 2017.

While at Nebraska, Behrens won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and was chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior. She closed her career as the NU's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Behrens was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic All-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.

Behrens and her husband, Matt, were married in 2006. The couple resides in Lincoln with their two kids, Logan (8) and Hattie (5).

Craig Dyer

Craig Dyer enters his first season at Creighton after being named an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator in February.

Dyer comes to Creighton after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Penn State, during which time the Nittany Lions went 57-12 and shared a Big Ten title in 2017. PSU reached the National Semifinals in 2017 after being Regional Semifinalists in 2016. Dyer assisted with all recruiting activities in addition to video analysis and scouting report preparation of all opponents.

Dyer served as the program's defensive coordinator in 2016 and worked primarily with PSU's outside hitters in 2017. He trained a pair of All-Americans on the outside in 2017, including Big Ten Player of the Year Simone Lee.

"I think this is a home-run hire," Kirsten Bernthal Booth said at the time of his hiring. "Craig has been part of building two programs at Marquette and Pittsburgh, and then one of the perennial powers in the country at Penn State. Everyone that I talked to that he's worked with just rave about him as a coach, as a recruiter and most importantly as a person."

While at Pitt from 2013-16, Dyer served as the Panthers' assistant and associate head coach, as well as recruiting coordinator, while also working primarily with the setters and the offense. Dyer was voted among the Top 10 Women's Assistant Coaches in the collegiate game in a 2015 VolleyballMag.com poll while he was at Pitt.

Prior to Pitt, he was an assistant coach at Marquette University from 2009-12. During his tenure with the Golden Eagles, he helped Marquette to a 92-39 record, increasing single-season records for program wins from 2010-12. Dyer also guided Marquette to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2011-12, mentoring a trio of AVCA All-Americans along the way.

During Dyer's first tenure at Penn State from 2006-09, he helped lead the Nittany Lion men's team to an NCAA national championship title in 2008, as well as consecutive EIVA conference titles in each year. The Nittany Lions posted a 66-10 record during Dyer's time at Penn State, with seven Nittany Lions garnering AVCA All-America distinction.

Dyer also made stops as an assistant coach at Seton Hall (2004-06) and Rutgers (2002-04) after serving as a head coach at with the men's program at Susquehanna (2000-02). Dyer earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education from Susquehanna in 1995.

Outside of the collegiate game, Dyer spent time as an assistant coach for the 2008 Men's Junior National Team. The 2008 squad earned a bronze medal at the NORCECA World Championship Qualifier to earn a spot in the 2009 Junior World Championships. He also served as a training coach from 2006-07 and served as head coach of the Boys A2 Training Camp in 2007.

Dyer and his wife, Jennifer Armson-Dyer, have two sons: Liam (8) and Luke (4).

Noel Carpio

Carpio arrives in Omaha after serving as both the Indoor and Beach Volleyball manager at the University of Arizona.

He also has served as head coach and technical adviser for the Southern Arizona Volleyball Academy (SAVA) for three years.

Last December, Carpio was one of 10 recipients of the American Volleyball Coaches Association Diversity Award.

Anna Vandevoort

Anna Vandevoort is in her second season as the video coordinator for Creighton Volleyball, and first while also serving as the program's director of operations.

Vandevoort has previously interned with USA Volleyball, working with the High Performance Department and Events, before also working with USA Football.

As an undergraduate, she attended the University of Kansas and served as a team manager for the Jayhawks, who reached the 2015 Final Four and won the Big 12 in 2016.

Her older brother, Mike Vandevoort, served as a manager with the Creighton men's basketball program before graduating in 2013, while her uncle Dave Shoji won 1,202 matches and four national titles as Hawai'i head coach.

Vandevoort grew up in Fargo, N.D.

Seniors Marysa Wilkinson, Kenzie Crawford and Lydia Dimke receive the Bluejay Invitational trophy from Associate Athletic Director Brandy Menaugh.

NBA forward Doug McDermott, the 2014 National Player of the Year when he played at Creighton, cheered on the Bluejays during their victory over No. 13 Kentucky.

Creighton won a fourth straight BIG EAST Championship, defeating Marquette on their home court in five sets for the title.

Alexa Roumeliotis (center, #13) leads the celebration as Creighton wins the BIG EAST title.

Members of Creighton's 2018 team enjoyed the trip of a lifetime from June 10-21 when it went on a foreign tour of Europe. Over the course of time in Italy, Slovenia, Hungary, Austria and the Czech Republic, the Bluejays played in five matches, did community service, learned about the history and culture of Europe, and formed bonds and memories that will last a lifetime.

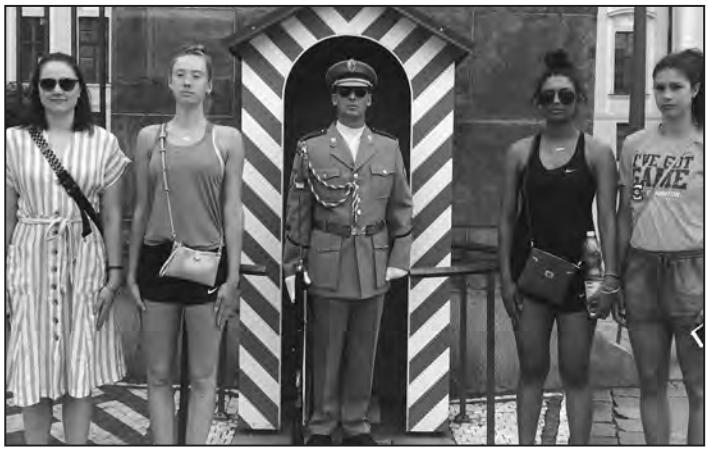
The team made a stop in the mountains of Lake Bled, Slovenia on June 13.



Megan Ballenger (far left), Kari Zumach, Keeley Davis and Jaali Winters stop by the Prague Castle in the Czech Republic, on June 19.

Kills and Kills Per Set

A kill is awarded to a player any time an attack is unreturnable by the opposition and is a direct cause of the opponent not returning the ball, or any time the attack leads directly to a blocking error by the opposition. A kill leads directly to a point.
Kills Per Set = Kills / Sets Played

About These Records

These records only reflect matches played since Creighton volleyball's reinstatement in 1994.

Individuals with more information on the teams from 1973-80 are encouraged to contact the Creighton Sports Information Office at (402) 280-5544 to help rebuild the past.

Names and records in bold on these pages were set in 2017.

Attack Pct. and Attack Attempts

Attack Percentage = (Kills - Attack Errors) / Attack Attempts
An attack attempt is recorded any time a player attempts to attack (hit strategically) the ball into the opponent's court. The ball may be set, spiked, tipped or hit as an overhead contact.

Aces and Aces Per Set

A service ace is a serve that results directly in a point. An ace is awarded if the serve strikes the opponent's court untouched, the serve is passed by the opponent but can't be kept in play, if the referee calls a violation on the receiver, or if the receiving team is out of rotation.

Digs and Digs Per Set

A dig is awarded when a player passes the ball that has been attacked by the opposition. Digs are given only when players receive an attacked ball and it is kept in play, not when a ball is brought up off a "put back" (blocked ball).

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.
A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponent's court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

Points and Points Per Set

Points are a relatively new volleyball statistic, having been introduced with the beginning of rally scoring in 2001. Points are awarded for positive contributions that lead directly to a point for a player's team. Points = Kills + Aces + Block Solos + .5(Block Assists)
Points Per Set = Points / Sets Played

Creighton's 2014 team won the Bluejay Invitational title for the first time.

Creighton's 2001 club went 12-6 in the Missouri Valley Conference.

2010 NCAA Tournament

21-12 Overall, 13-5 MVC (3rd)

Creighton's breakthrough season saw the Bluejays make their first NCAA Tournament, upset No. 16 Iowa State, and coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth claim National Coach of the Year honors from CVU.com. Creighton finished third in the MVC, the nation's No. 6-ranked conference, and then broke down another barrier by reaching its first conference tournament final. The Jays earned an at-large bid, beating Iowa State in five sets, before falling at No. 12 Minnesota to end the year. Sophomore setter Megan Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-American Honorable Mention as part of a balanced squad that ranked second nationally in digs per set (18.94).

Missouri Valley Conference Regular-Season Champions
Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Champions
29-4 Overall, 17-1 MVC (1st)

One of the best seasons by any women's team in Creighton history saw the Bluejays close their 19-year run in the MVC by winning the program's first Valley regular-season and Tournament titles. CU won early-season tournaments at South Florida and Northern Colorado before clinching the outright league crown with a memorable 3-2 comeback win at rival Wichita State. The Jays swept the Shockers eight days later for the Valley Tourney title, and defeated Marquette to open NCAA Tournament play before falling at Minnesota. Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, while Kelli Browning was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year. Both women were named AVCA All-American Honorable Mention and were joined on the All-MVC First Team by Melanie Jereb. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named MVC Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year. Creighton spent four weeks in the AVCA Top 25 for the first time, reaching as high as No. 21, before finishing No. 24.

23-9 Overall, 12-4 BIG EAST (2nd)

Creighton's first year in the BIG EAST Conference saw the Bluejays reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years. Creighton would go 9-3 against a grueling non-conference schedule and move into the AVCA Top 25 for the first six weeks. The Bluejays opened the year with a win over No. 13 BYU, and would later earn impressive wins over Kansas, Cal State Northridge and Wichita State before opening league play. Creighton swept eventual BIG EAST regular-season and tournament champ Marquette in mid-October, and would earn the No. 2 seed for the league tourney in Omaha before falling in four to the Golden Eagles in the title match. Creighton topped Arkansas in the NCAA Tournament before being eliminated in four close sets at Kansas. Kelli Browning and Leah McNary were named First Team All-BIG EAST, while Michelle Sicner was a second team all-conference pick. Both Browning and Sicner went on to earn AVCA All-American Honorable Mention accolades. The Bluejays led the nation with 3.06 blocks per set.

Creighton won the BIG EAST regular-season and Tournament titles while returning to the NCAA Tournament. CU went 7-6 in non-conference play against a schedule stacked with five ranked teams while winning its first Bluejay Invitational. The Bluejays went 16-2 in league play, losing twice to Seton Hall, before beating the Pirates for the school's first BIG EAST Tournament crown in any sport. Creighton fell to Oregon State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in four sets in Topeka, Kan. Individually, Kelli Browning was named a Third Team All-American, the third straight season she was honored by the AVCA. She finished her career as Creighton's all-time leader in block assists and hitting percentage, and joined Leah McNary in the 1,000-kill club. Jess Bird joined Browning as a First Team All-BIG EAST pick, while Lauren Smith was a Second Team All-BIG EAST honoree and BIG EAST Tournament MVP. Kate Elman became Creighton's all-time leader in digs but broke her wrist mid-season and was replaced capably by Melanie Jereb.

BIG EAST Tournament Champions
27-9 Overall, 17-1 BIG EAST (1st)

Creighton won its second consecutive BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles to earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons, then advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history. Creighton played five top-11 teams in non-conference play, including a 3-0 sweep over No. 10 Kentucky. A five-set comeback over Kansas State ignited a 12-match win streak, and CU won the BIG EAST by three games with a 17-1 mark. The Bluejays then defended their home court with victories over Marquette and Villanova to win the BIG EAST Tournament. Creighton earned the No. 16 national seed, but did not bid to host, and was sent to Chapel Hill, N.C., for postseason play. CU defeated Coastal Carolina and No. 23 North Carolina to clinch a Sweet 16 appearance, where it won the first set from No. 2 USC before falling in four. The most victorious senior class in program history was led by all-time digs leader Kate Elman, while Jess Bird was named BIG EAST Tourney MVP. Jaali Winters spearheaded the nation's No. 11 recruiting class and was named BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and Third Team All-American while setting a CU record for kills in a season. Lauren Smith was First Team All-BIG EAST and Honorable Mention All-American. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year and AVCA East Region Coach of the Year.

BIG EAST Conference Regular-Season Champions
BIG EAST Tournament Champions
29-7 Overall, 18-0 BIG EAST (1st)

Creighton won its third consecutive BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles to earn its sixth NCAA Tournament bid in seven seasons, then advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time thanks to consecutive five-set victories over Northern Iowa, No. 4 Kansas and No. 17 Michigan. The Bluejays became the first team in BIG EAST history to go 18-0 in league play, dropping just five sets, then swept both matches in the league tournament. Purdue transfer Lydia Dimke made an immediate impact at setter and was named BIG EAST Player of the Year and Third Team All-American by the AVCA, while outside hitter Jaali Winters was named MVP of the BIG EAST Championship. Dimke and Winters were joined by outside hitter Taryn Kloth on the All-BIG EAST First Team, while middle hitters Lauren Smith and Marysa Wilkinson were Second Team All-BIG EAST. Freshman libero Brittany Witt topped the team in digs, while classmate Megan Ballenger led the league in aces. Kirsten Bernthal Booth headed the BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year and was named VolleyballMag.com National Coach of the Year. Creighton was ranked a program-high 18th in the AVCA preseason poll, and had an RPI on Selection Sunday of 17. The Bluejays would finish the season ninth in the final AVCA poll and 12th in the year-end RPI.

BIG EAST Conference Regular-Season Champions
BIG EAST Tournament Champions
26-7 Overall, 16-2 BIG EAST (1st)

Creighton won its fourth consecutive BIG EAST regular-season and tournament titles to earn its seventh NCAA Tournament bid in eight seasons. The Bluejays were named the No. 9 national seed and hosted NCAA Tournament matches for the first time, defeating Coastal Carolina before falling to Michigan State in the Second Round. CU's season included four different tournament titles, road wins at No. 3 Washington and No. 7 Kansas, and a home victory versus No. 13 Kentucky. Brittany Witt was named BIG EAST Libero of the Year. She was joined as a First Team All-BIG EAST choice by Lydia Dimke, Marysa Wilkinson and Jaali Winters. Witt, Dimke and Wilkinson earned Honorable Mention All-America acclaim from the AVCA, with Winters being recognized as a Second Team CoSIDA Academic All-American. Kirsten Bernthal Booth won her 300th match at Creighton with a Sept. 24 victory over Villanova.

HEAD COACH HISTORY AND BIG EAST YEARLY STAT LEADERS

Head Coach History

Ben Guiliano

Ben Guiliano helped lay the groundwork for Creighton volleyball as the man in charge when Creighton reinstated volleyball prior to the 1994 season. Guiliano guided the Bluejays from 1994-96 and posted a 25-58 record in that time.

Howard Wallace

Howard Wallace took over prior to the 1997 season and led the Bluejays to four Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearances in his six years on the job. In 1997, Wallace was named the MVC's Co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Bluejays to a third-place finish in league play. He owned a 68-94 record in six seasons on the Bluejay bench.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Kirsten Bernthal Booth became the program's third head coach on Feb. 3, 2003. She owns a record of 317-160 entering 2018 and is the school's all-time leader in winning percentage and wins. She has been named MVC Coach of the Year in 2012, BIG EAST Coach of the Year in both 2015 and 2016, and AVCA East Region Coach of the Year in both 2015 and 2016. Booth is also a three-time National Coach of the Year honoree. She has led the Bluejays to seven NCAA Tournament appearances, including two trips to the Sweet 16 and one to the Elite Eight, while guiding CU to nine NCAA Tournament wins overall.

 MVC regular-season match (1994-2012)*
 BIG EAST regular-season match (2013-Present)*

Creighton won its first MVC regular-season and tournament titles during the 2012 season, which would also prove to be the program's last in The Valley.

Creighton clinched the program's first outright BIG EAST title with a Nov. 21, 2014 sweep over Villanova at D.J. Sokol Arena.

For the 10th straight season, Creighton will play its home volleyball matches on campus at D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The building has served as host of the 2009 Missouri Valley Conference and 2013 and 2015 BIG EAST Conference Volleyball Championships, which returns to Omaha again in 2018. Last year CU hosted the First and Second Round of the NCAA Volleyball Tournament in the facility.

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction, which employed up to 115 workers at one time.

The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

Creighton filled D.J. Sokol Arena for both its 2017 NCAA Tournament matches.

In addition to a large locker room and team lounge at D.J. Sokol Arena, Creighton's volleyball program also benefits from coaching offices and athletic training rooms in the Ryan Athletic Center. The Ryan Athletic Center houses the offices for most of Creighton's support staff, including ticketing, athletic development, marketing, and sports information. The school has used a sport court surface for volleyball, but will be switching to a Taraflex® surface later this season.

701 Florence Boulevard • Omaha, NE 68178

Omaha, Neb., is located just west of the convergence of Interstates 29 and 80 on the west bank of the Missouri River. To get to D.J. Sokol Arena, follow the directions below:

Going West on I-80
Traveling west on Interstate 80 from Des Moines as you approach the state line, take Interstate 29 North. Go 1.5 miles before getting in the left lane and exit left onto Interstate 480 West, crossing into Nebraska. Take the 14th Street exit (exit 3). Stay straight to go onto Cass Street. Turn right onto Florence Boulevard. Facility will be on your right.

From I-29 North
Traveling north on Interstate 29, take I-80 West at the convergence of the two interstates in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Follow the above directions from I-80 West.

Going East on I-80
Traveling east on Interstate 80 from Lincoln, take Interstate 480 North to downtown Omaha. Continue on I-480 North to I-480 East, taking the Capitol/Civic Auditorium exit. At the stoplight, turn left (north) on 19th Street. D.J. Sokol Arena will be on your right in about half a mile.

From Eppley Airfield
When leaving the terminal, turn left (south) on Abbott Drive and follow toward downtown Omaha. Abbott Drive will turn into Cuming Street. Take Cuming Street to 18th Street and turn left (south). Proceed two blocks and the facility will be on your right, just past Mystery Manor.

Media Parking
Limited media parking is available near D.J. Sokol Arena in "Lot M", located on the northeast corner of the intersection of 18th and Burt Streets. From that intersection, go north and the lot entrance will be on your right. Requests must be made 48 hours or more in advance and names will be placed on a list with the parking attendant. Media should cross the street and enter through the east side of the building, just past Mystery Manor.

Media Will Call/Entrance
If arriving more than an hour before a match, credentialed personnel must enter through the east doors. Once gates open an hour before first serve, credentialed personnel may enter through any ticketed gate at D.J. Sokol Arena. Credentials will be left at the ticket office will call on the South side of the building. Requests should be made 48 hours in advance by calling Creighton Sports Information Director Rob Anderson at (402) 280-5544.

D.J. SOKOL ARENA INSIDE THE WAYNE AND EILEEN RYAN ATHLETIC CENTER

The Ryan and Sokol families were honored during the dedication of the facility at intermission of the Creighton vs. Texas Tech volleyball match on Aug. 28, 2009.

The Jensen Family Lounge gives the Creighton volleyball program a private place to study, watch television and host special events.

Thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and the late Eileen Ryan and family, Dave and Peggy Sokol, and many others, D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center was dedicated on Aug. 28, 2009.

The 75,000-square-foot facility houses a gymnasium holding 2,500 fans, as well as coaches' offices and locker rooms for volleyball, women's basketball, men's soccer, women's soccer and visiting teams and officials. It also houses areas for ticketing, athletic training, meeting rooms, media work rooms and hospitality functions. In addition, the arena is used for other campus and community events, including assemblies, coaching camps and clinics, concerts, speakers and high school graduations.

The Ryans and their family are longtime supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. Wayne Ryan was also a Jaybacker and his daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton's Board of Trustees.

Dave and Peggy Sokol honored their son, D.J., who died in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. Sokol is a former chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company, a global leader in the production, supply and distribution of energy from diversified fuel sources, and formerly served on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

D.J. Sokol

"Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality," said Creighton's McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Bruce Rasmussen. "This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

Inside the Ryan Center, the Jensen Family Lounge features a theater-style viewing area for television, movies and game film, as well as a study area, kitchenette and gaming area. TV's throughout the lounge give the student-athletes multiple viewing options. The lounge is also easily converted into a media room for the post-game press conferences for both volleyball and women's basketball.

Creighton averaged 1,873 fans per home match in 2017, including five crowds of 2,000 or more.

Megan Bober owns the D.J. Sokol Arena record for assists in a season.

Lauren Smith owns the arena record with 243 career blocks.

Jessica Houts had a record14 blocks against Lipscomb on Sept. 4, 2009.

Jaali Winters enters her senior year owning records for single-season kills (249), career kills (547) and attempts in a match (77) at D.J. Sokol Arena.

A look at what the new women's practice facility that is currently under construction will look like when completed.

A new, $4.5 million women's practice gym will complete the east campus athletic corridor. Fewer student-athletes will miss practice because of tight gym and classroom schedules, and all Bluejay student-athletes will benefit.

Designed primarily for volleyball and women's basketball, this facility acknowledges the hardworking, talented coaches and student-athletes Creighton hopes to retain. Furthermore, Creighton Athletics is looking forward to sharing this facility with the entire Omaha community.

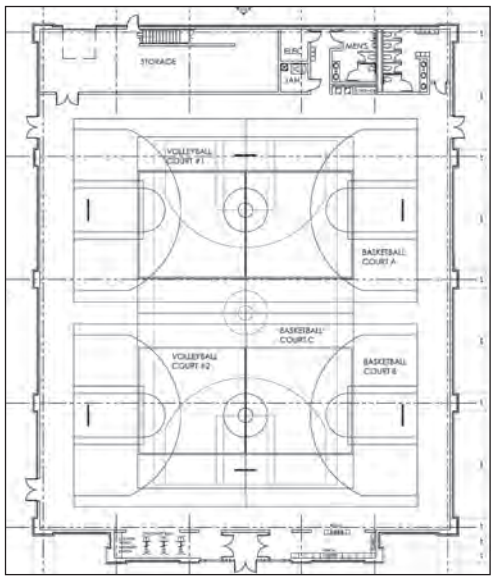
In recent years, both the Creighton women's basketball and volleyball teams have achieved incredible success on the national stage. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena have been the home to Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball programs since 2009. The addition of these facilities has been pivotal.

Aligning with Creighton Athletics' mission of recruiting, retaining, developing and graduating outstanding student-athletes, this new facility will be a vital developmental resource for both programs.

It will provide an alternative 16,109 square-foot space to ensure both programs have ample court time to develop as a team and individual athletes. As volleyball continues to expand its season by more than a month, having a designated practice gym will alleviate scheduling challenges, as well as provide ideal practice times for both programs as their seasons overlap.

In addition, the space will provide more opportunity for the Creighton community to host additional special events at the Ryan Athletic Center during normal practice times. This facility also sends a strong national message showing Creighton Athletics' dedication to women's athletics, our student-athletes and coaches. Construction on the facility began in April of 2018, with completion scheduled for later during 2018.

The new women's practice facility (left) will be just west of the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena.



The versatile new facility will have room for two volleyball courts or two basketball courts.

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., which has a metropolitan area population of more than 900,000.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private university, one of 28 Catholic, Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States.

Creighton Today

Creighton is nationally recognized as a leading university in the Midwest, known for student-centered education and significant undergraduate student research opportunities. As a Jesuit university, Creighton is committed to academic excellence and service to others and seeks to create an inclusive, diverse community.

In addition to the College of Arts and Sciences, the University's oldest and largest college, Creighton includes the Heider College of Business, the College of Nursing, the College of Professional Studies, the Graduate School, and the Schools of Dentistry, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy and Health Professions.

The freshman academic profile places Creighton among the Top 10 private Midwestern universities with more than 4,000 undergraduates and among the Top 10 Catholic universities in the nation.

For the 15th year in a row, Creighton is the No. 1 Midwest regional university in the annual U.S. News & World Report magazine's college rankings. U.S. News also again ranked the University No. 1 in the Midwest region for veterans. Creighton was also named among only 42 schools nationally as a top school for undergraduate research opportunities, and among only 20 schools nationwide for internship opportunities available for students.

The Princeton Review listed Creighton as one of the nation's top 382 colleges and universities in its latest college guide.

Campus Life

Creighton offers more than 200 student clubs and organizations, including academic, athletic, cultural, Greek, political, professional, service, social and spiritual groups, as well as opportunities to work on campus publications.

Nine sophisticated on-campus living environments include two junior/senior townhome residence halls with technologically rich furnished apartments and complete kitchens.

Creighton students take part in more than 1 million hours of community service at local, national and international community organizations annually.

Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in retreats, faith-sharing opportunities and multi-faith services.

Students may enroll in Creighton's service-learning semester in the Dominican Republic, faculty-led courses taught abroad, or study abroad in nearly every country in the world through exchange or affiliate programs.

Creighton also offers online education and has campuses outside of the Omaha area, including a health professions regional campus at Dignity Health St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix; occupational therapy partnerships with the University of Alaska in Anchorage and Regis University in Denver; and a campus for nursing students in Hastings, Neb.

Our Alumni

Nearly 70,000 Creighton alumni live in 90 countries, with 30 percent living in Nebraska. The largest number of alumni who live outside the United States reside in Canada, Japan and Malaysia.

Student Snapshot

Creighton has more than 8,000 students: More than 4,000 are enrolled as undergraduates and more than 4,000 are enrolled in the graduate or professional programs.

One-third of Creighton undergraduates participate in research before graduating. Last year, 200 of these students presented their research findings at local, state and national professional conferences.

The Creighton Campus

Creighton is committed to being a model living-learning campus environment. The 120-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. The campus design and master plan have received top awards in landscape and architecture.

Since 2000, Creighton has invested more than $300 million in on-campus improvements and planned expansion to create a more vibrant and robust campus:

- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events.
- The Hixson-Lied Science Building, the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building form the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions' leading approach to teaching and research.
- Davis Square and Opus Hall are upperclassman townhome residence halls located on the east side of campus.
- The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to Creighton women's basketball and volleyball.
- The Rasmussen Fitness & Sports Center opened in the fall of 2012.
- The Mike and Josie Harper Center became the home of the Heider College of Business in the fall of 2013.
- The Championship Center opened in 2014.
- The new 200,000-square foot School of Dentistry building at 21st and Cuming streets opened in the summer of 2018.

At the center of campus is the heart of the University, the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, as well as the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

The University recently undertook the largest renovation project in its history, with more than 100,000 sq. ft. of academic space being remodeled.

History of Billy Bluejay

Billy Bluejay is the official mascot of the Creighton University Athletics Department. Creighton is a private, Jesuit NCAA Division I school in Omaha, Neb., founded in 1878.

Prior to 1924, with no official athletics nickname, University publications and news media often referred to Creighton athletic teams by the school's colors – the "White and Blue," or vice versa. Because of Creighton's location atop a bluff, the team was occasionally designated unofficially as the "Hilltoppers," but the name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country went by the same nickname. At the behest of Creighton's Athletics Board and Alumni Association, the Omaha Bee newspaper coordinated a public contest in late 1923 to select a nickname and mascot for Creighton University athletic teams. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletics Board decided upon "Bluejays" because the color of the bird was in keeping with school colors.

The Bluejays were originally depicted by an ornithologically correct rendition of the bird. In 1941, Creighton alumnus Joseph P. Murphy, a 1931 graduate of the College of Business and, at the time, a Creighton journalism professor and the head of its public relations department, designed a graphical image of the bird with a more human stance and expression. Murphy's 1941 design remained largely intact for 72 years with only minor revisions. While it is unclear on the exact year the first walking costume mascot modeled after Murphy's 1941 graphical image appeared publicly or the first time the image or mascot were referred to as "Billy Bluejay," many costumes were created, changed/re-designed over the past seven decades as Billy became a fixture at Creighton Athletics events, roaming the sidelines to cheer on his beloved Bluejays.

In October, 2013, in conjunction with Creighton's move to the BIG EAST Conference, the University unveiled a new Athletics brand – athletic logo, sport-specific logos and corresponding secondary marks designed to increase overall awareness of the Creighton University Bluejays - locally, regionally and nationally. The new logo was designed to build on the history, tradition and love of previous Billy Bluejay icons while maintaining the integrity of the past and establishing the new Creighton Bluejay brand as a distinct and recognizable identity in the BIG EAST.

Creighton Athletics turned to Street Characters to provide an updated Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume, one that was more vibrant, more athletic and one that more closely resembled the new athletics brand. The new-look Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume made his first public appearance in front of over 17,000 fans when the Creighton men's basketball team hosted Nebraska on Dec. 8 at CHI Health Center Omaha.

Director of Athletics
Bruce Rasmussen

The 2017-18 chairman of the highly esteemed NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 25th year as McCormick Endowed Athletic Director, and 39th overall at Creighton University, in 2018-19.

During Rasmussen's tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on and off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than four recent projects that continue to change the area's athletics scene. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, opened in 2011 to rave reviews. Just east of the Ryan Athletic Center is Creighton's student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor in 2012. The most recent addition to the campus is the Championship Center, which opened in June 2014 and is considered one of the best of its kind.

Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past 15 years, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and CHI Health Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Rasmussen also helped lead the charge for one of the biggest moves in school history when the school accepted an invitation into the BIG EAST Conference in March of 2013.

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 37 regular-season and 40 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 83 postseason appearances. The Bluejays remain the only school in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 16 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tournament in men's soccer in 24 of the past 26 years. Creighton was also recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in seven of its last nine seasons in the league.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in Omaha for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has welcomed more than 300,000 fans in each of the last 13 years.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award. In both 2010 and 2015, Rasmussen was honored with an Under Armour AD of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In 2008, he was inducted into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame.

Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, softball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, women's golf, women's soccer as well as men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes have owned GPAs of 3.30 or above in 24 straight semesters entering the fall of 2018.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2017 Jamboree generated more than $550,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), that culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season. The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994. A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan, David, John, Katie and Grace.

President
Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel Hendrickson, S.J., PhD, is the 25th president of Creighton University. A Nebraska native, Fr. Hendrickson earned his BA in psychology and theology from Marquette University in 1993 and entered the Society of Jesus in 1994. He received his MA in philosophical resources from Fordham University, a Master of Divinity degree from the Jesuit School of Theology at Santa Clara University, and MA and PhD degrees from Columbia University.

Fr. Hendrickson's first contact with Creighton was as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in 1996. He returned as an adjunct instructor of philosophy from 2000 to 2003. He also served as an adjunct professor with Creighton's Institute for Latin American Concern (ILAC) program in Santiago, Dominican Republic in 2002. Fr. Hendrickson was a visiting instructor at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania, and an adjunct professor of philosophy at Fordham University.

In 2012, he returned to Marquette University as associate vice president in the Office of the Executive Vice President, working closely with the president, provost and academic deans. He then became an associate provost for academic initiatives at Marquette. While in administrative posts at Marquette, Fr. Hendrickson also taught each semester jointly in the Department of Philosophy and College of Education, and he served as the co-director of the Burke Scholars service and leadership program. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013; today he serves on the boards of Boston College and Xavier University and also is a trustee of the St. Francis Indian Mission of the Rosebud Indian Reservation in South Dakota.

Fr. Hendrickson has a special interest in education with a global perspective. His international travel and immersion experiences have taken him to over 30 countries on nearly every continent. He is a trustee of ILAC/Centro de Educación para la Salud Integral (CESI) in the Dominican Republic and a trustee of Jesuit Worldwide Learning (JWL).

Fr. Hendrickson, who grew up in Fremont, Neb., and graduated from Mount Michael Benedictine High School in Elkhorn, comes from a family of educators. His identical twin, the Rev. D. Scott Hendrickson, S.J., DPhil, is an assistant professor of modern languages at Loyola University Chicago, while his older brother, Ryan C. Hendrickson, PhD, is dean of the Graduate School and vice provost for sponsored research at Eastern Illinois University.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.46 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.44 cumulative GPA.
- The NCAA uses a tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. In the spring of 2018, Creighton had four teams post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports: women's basketball, women's cross country, women's golf and women's tennis.
- Creighton owns 47 Google Cloud CoSIDA Academic All-American honors all-time. In 2017-18 Jaali Winters (volleyball), Tyler Clement (men's basketball), Brooks Kendall (men's tennis) and Sam Crowley (softball) became the school's latest honorees.
- In June of 2014, Creighton opened the Championship Center that is located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium. It serves as the new Creighton Athletics home for athletic performance, athletic training, men's basketball and the academic resource center.
- Nine members of the Creighton Volleyball team earned a 3.5 GPA or better during the spring 2018 semester.
- Creighton had 161 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least one time last year, including 85 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Thirty student-athletes (13.5 percent) earned perfect 4.0 GPAs during the spring 2018 semester, including Grace Nelson, Kelsey O'Connell and Brittany Witt from the volleyball program.
- Eleven teams (women's basketball, rowing, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's golf, women's golf, men's soccer, women's soccer, men's tennis, women's tennis, volleyball) had team GPAs of 3.25 or better last spring and every team owns a cumulative GPA of 2.90 or better.
- Creighton picked up a Team Academic Award from the American Volleyball Coaches Association. It was Creighton's 12th award in the last 15 seasons and 14th overall, as the Bluejays previously were honored in 1998, 1999, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2016 and 2017.

Creighton's Championship Center Features Academic Resource Center

In the summer of 2014, Creighton opened its Championship Center, a facility that will benefit all student-athletes for years to come. Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, the Championship Center is highlighted by the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center, the Doug McDermott Player Lounge and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

The Parker Family Academic Resource Center features private meeting and study rooms with access to tutors, a computer lab, wireless internet, couches, tables, chairs and many more accoutrements to help Bluejay student-athletes make the most of their time.

BIG EAST CONFERENCE

Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013. The 2018-19 season will be Creighton's sixth in the league.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, joined a BIG EAST that retained DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Seton Hall, Providence, Villanova and St. John's. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York.

The 2018-19 academic year will be the 40th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with men's basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board. BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 14 titles in the last 19 years, including a Villanova title in men's basketball in 2017-18.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 41 national championships in eight different sports and 145 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2017-18. Since the league's 2013 alignment, the BIG EAST has produced 11 individual national champions.

All 10 universities reside within a top-75 media market, including eight schools in a top-36 market.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from the original seven-school alliance.

Providence*	10	62	46	85

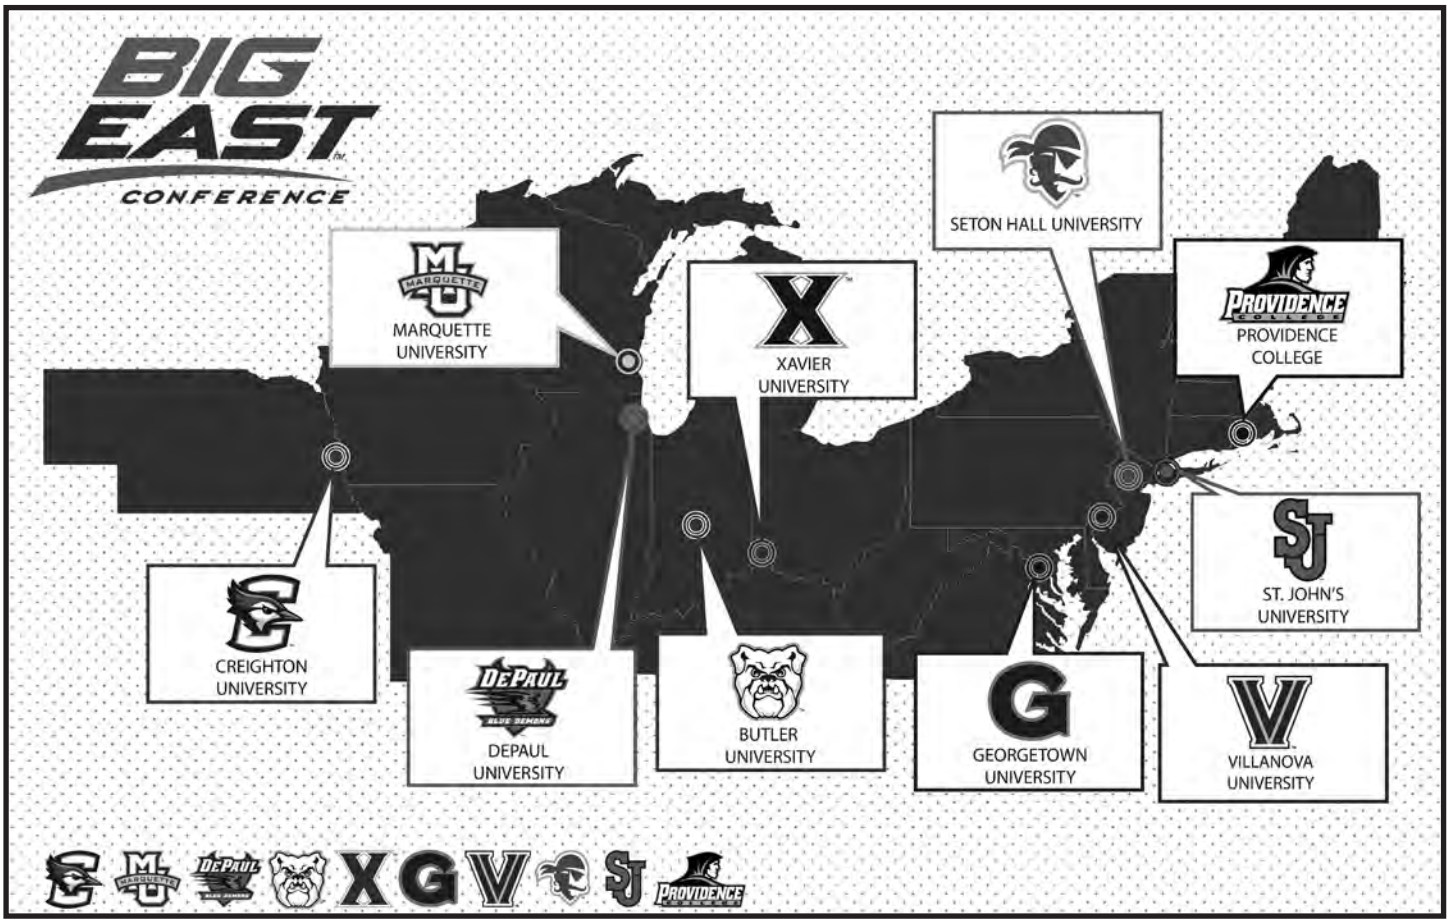
"We feel that joining the BIG EAST Conference gives us a greater opportunity to recruit, retain, develop, and graduate outstanding students and outstanding student-athletes. We know that continued success and excellence in each of our athletics programs will not be easy. We chose to join the BIG EAST not because it will be easy to be successful, we know it will be difficult. At Creighton University, we believe that goals that are difficult to achieve are the most worthwhile."

Creighton's McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Bruce Rasmussen



In its sixth year of a configuration that includes 10 outstanding and respected academic institutions, the BIG EAST Conference is entrenched as one of the nation's outstanding Conferences and a leader in collegiate athletics.

The BIG EAST reorganized in 2013 and began a new era by returning to its basketball-centric heritage. The league's 10 member schools—Butler University, Creighton University, DePaul University, Georgetown University, Marquette University, Providence College, St. John's University, Seton Hall University, Villanova University, and Xavier University—adhere to an unwavering commitment to academic integrity, athletic excellence and community service.

Val Ackerman, who previously served as founding President of the WNBA, President of USA Basketball and U.S. representative to the International Basketball Federation (FIBA), was named fifth Commissioner of the BIG EAST in conjunction with new alignment in 2013. Under her leadership, the BIG EAST has maintained its reputation for athletic achievement at the highest level and has continued to be influential on the national intercollegiate landscape, with numerous conference and campus administrators currently serving on important NCAA committees. She is one of the few sports executives who has held leadership positions in both men's and women's sports at the collegiate, professional, national team and international level.

Founded by Dave Gavitt in 1979, the BIG EAST has been lauded as a leader in innovative concepts in promotion, particularly television, and that reputation continues with the conference's relationship with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST has a fruitful multi-year partnership with FOX Sports and its national cable network FS1. FOX's comprehensive coverage of BIG EAST men's basketball includes the broadcast of all regular season games on FOX, FS1, FS2 or FOX Regional Networks, as well as the BIG EAST Tournament at Madison Square Garden, college basketball's longest-running postseason conference tourney held at the same venue.

BIG EAST institutions are located in seven of the nation's 36 largest media markets, including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Indianapolis, Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

FOX Sports platforms carry complete coverage of women's basketball regular season play and the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Tournament. Every Olympic sport championship is also carried on the network or digital platforms.

The BIG EAST has also increased the visibility of its member school programs with the expansion of the BIG EAST Digital Network (BEDN). When the conference launched BEDN in 2014-15, the league became the first collegiate conference to be hosted on the FOX Sports mobile platform, FOX Sports Go, the app that provides live streaming of FOX Sports content. For the third straight year, BEDN will carry 225 live events with an emphasis on women's basketball, soccer and Olympic sport regular season and championship events.

The BIG EAST Conference became a reality in May of 1979 through the vision of Gavitt, the former Providence College men's basketball coach and athletic director. Providence, St. John's, Georgetown, Syracuse, Seton Hall, Connecticut and Boston College formed the original seven-school alliance, and within the span of just a few years the conference had become a national power in men's basketball. While the composition of the BIG EAST evolved over the next three decades, the focus of its schools did not change, reflecting a tradition of broad-based programs led by administrators and coaches who emphasize academic strength and fair play.

In December of 2012, the seven BIG EAST schools that do not compete in FBS football—DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, St. John's, Seton Hall and Villanova—announced their intention to separate from the conference's football-playing schools and form an independent association. On March 20, 2013, the seven schools reached an agreement that enabled them to retain the BIG EAST name and assume the old conference's long-term pact with Madison Square Garden to host the BIG EAST Men's Basketball Tournament, one of the premier events in college athletics. The schools also announced the addition of three distinguished institutions sharing the same academic and athletic values —Butler, Creighton and Xavier— and forged a landmark, long-term broadcast partnership with FOX Sports. The BIG EAST moved its headquarters from its original location in Providence, R.I., to midtown Manhattan in New York City to complete the transformation. The BIG EAST's new era officially began on July 1, 2013, its effective date as the NCAA's 32nd Division I conference.

To complement its athletic successes, the conference launched BIG EAST Serves in 2014 to align with the service missions of the 10 member institutions. Initiatives housed under the BIG EAST Serves umbrella, such as BIG EAST Serves Day, the BIG EAST Career Consortium and the national partnership with the It's On Us campaign against campus sexual assaults, reflect the conference's commitment to developing the complete BIG EAST student-athlete and making a positive contribution to the campus communities of its member schools and the conference's headquarters in New York. In 2017, the BIG EAST hosted its inaugural Mental Health Summit to help provide institutional personnel with information, insights and basic training so they can better support the mental health of their student-athletes.

The BIG EAST hosts Freshmen Fundamentals, a unique program designed to assist men's basketball student-athletes in the transition from high school to college and the elite level of BIG EAST basketball. In 2016, the league started the Transition Game program for women's basketball. The interactive event assists women's basketball student-athletes in the transition from college player to emerging professional, both on and off the court.

Current BIG EAST men's basketball programs have enjoyed extraordinary success over the years. Villanova won the 2016 and 2018 NCAA Championships, its second and third in school history. Georgetown and Marquette also have won the national title. DePaul, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall have all made it to the Final Four. The BIG EAST placed three men's basketball teams in the Final Four in 1985—Georgetown, St. John's and Villanova—the only time this has occurred in NCAA history. Over the past 15 years, Butler, Georgetown, Marquette and Villanova have reached the Final Four, with Butler making two trips and Villanova three. Xavier has advanced to the Elite Eight three times, including 2016-17, and the Sweet 16 four other times.

BIG EAST student-athletes have achieved recent success in other sports, as well. A BIG EAST team has won the NCAA women's cross country championship four of the last nine years (Villanova won twice; Providence and Georgetown once), with one runner-up finish (Providence). Creighton men's soccer has reached the NCAA College Cup in two of the past six seasons, with the Providence men advancing to the semifinals in 2014. Georgetown's women's soccer team reached the College Cup in 2016, the first appearance by a team from a non-football five conference since 2005.

In the 39 years since the original league opened its doors, BIG EAST teams have won 41 national championships in eight different sports with 145 student-athletes winning individual national titles in the league's history. Since 2013, the BIG EAST has produced 11 national champions.

Volleyball SID

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the four Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night. More than 900,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo has spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums feature diverse offerings. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's botanical center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into an art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.
